

Artist / Zeina Kamareddine Badran

Zeina Kamareddine Badran (Born in Tripoli, Lebanon) is a painter and printmaker, she studied Art at the Lebanese American University. She received certificates in Lithography, etching and Silkscreen printing from Lebanese academy of Fine Arts (ALBA). She experiments with different textures and techniques to conjure the transformative influence of memory on identity. She held several solo exhibitions, most notably at the Salon d'Automne, Nicolas Sursock Museum, MENASART, and the Beirut Art Fair. Her work has been shown in collective exhibitions in Dubai, Abdu Dhabi, Jeddah, London and Venice. She teaches Printmaking at LAU (Lebanese American University).